

She stood watching him

“Stop fucking moaning” she said

She kicked him in the face

He moaned in pain

“What the fuck did I just say?” she said and kicked him hard in the guts.

He stifled a sound a spray of spit

He balled himself up

She used a length of wood as a lever moving him into the middle of the floor

He tried to adjust the blindfold dragging his face across the dust

“No” she said and jabbed him in the head with the wood

She stood watching him
He tried to suppress his breathing Adrenalin betrayed him blood rushed in his ears

His tears darkening the dust
